FRIDAY, MARCH 8, 1890.

The Government have made some important concessions to the North West members in the matter of second homesteads. We are not in possession of all the facts, but learn that second homesteads will be allowed to those settlers who would have been entitled thereto at the time the right to that privilege was abolished. Mr. Macdowell was largely instrumental in obtaining this concession from the Government. To those who accuse Mr. Macdowell of neglecting our interests and of being weak-kneed, we would say that such is not the case. We have every evidence that Mr. Macdowell is one of the hardest working members at Ottawa, and never allows an opportunity to pass of pressing the interests of his constituents on the notice of the Government. We consider the testimony of Mr. Macarthur, who opposed Mr. Macdowell's election, and who had since every opportunity of watching his actions at Ottawa, as of infinitely more weight than the croakings of a few politicians who mendaciously try to injure our member in the eyes of the public.

Commissioner Herchmer, in his annual report, deals at some length with the liquor question, and complains of the difficulties in enforcing the present law. He suggests that the manufacture and sale of beer be allowed in the Territories, under very stringent regulations. We long since advocated the course suggested by the Commissioner, and still believe it is the proper course to be adopted. We hope that the Government will at once act on the advice of the Commissioner in this matter.

The Dakota half-breeds are raising a row because they are asked to pay taxes like white settlers. There does not appear to be any party in the States blaming the authorities for imposing such tax or sympathizing with the half breeds. It would be very different if the trouble arose in our Northwest. The Government would at once be attacked for tyrannizing over the oppressed.

Sir John Macdonald is credited with the statement that there will be no general election for the Commons until 1892. Prospective candidates can therefore take it easy.

It would be interesting to the ratepayers to know whether or not the gentlemen appointed to audit the civic accounts have made a report to the Council, and it would be further interesting to know what such report is. We do not consider it right that these things should be kept hidden from those who are so deeply interested as the taxpayers. The people have a right to know what has been done with their money, and we trust that the required information will be speedily forthcoming.

It is reported that important changes are to be made during the present session of Parliament in the postal regulations. Drop letters will be charged two cents instead of one cent. The rate on letters for transmission will be three cents as formerly, except that the maximum weight allowance will be one ounce instead of half an ounce for a single rate. Registered letters will be charged ten cents instead of two cents.

OUR LITTLE SON

Four years old afflicted with a painful skin disease. Six doctors tried to cure him all failed. God willed and was completely cured by one set of Cuticura Remedies, costing $1.25.

Our little son will be four years of age on the 25th inst. In May, 1884, he was attacked with a very painful breaking out of the skin. We called in a physician, who treated him for about four weeks. The child received little or no good from the treatment. As the breaking out, supposed by the physician to be eczema, was aggravated from becoming itchy in blotches and more and more disfiguring. We were frequently obliged to get up in the night and rub him with soda in water, stronger salicylic acid, etc. Finally, we called other physicians, until no less than six had attempted to cure him, all alike failing, and the child steadily getting worse and worse, until about the 15th of last July, when we began to give him Cuticura Remedies internally, and the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap externally, and by the last of August he was so nearly well that we gave him only one dose of the Remedies every second day for about ten days longer, and he has never been troubled since with the horrible malady. In all we used less than one-half of a bottle of Cuticura Remedies, a little less than one box of Cuticura, and only one cake of Cuticura Soap.

H. E. RYAN, Cayuga, Livingston Co., Ill. Subscribed and sworn to before me this 4th day of January, 1887. C. N. COE, J.P.

SCROFULOUS HUMORS. Last spring I was very sick, being covered with some kind of scrofula. The doctors could not help me. I was advised to try the Cuticura Remedies. I did so, and in a day or two I was better, and better, until I was well as ever. I thank you for it very much and would like to have it told to the public. ED. HOFFMAN, North Attleboro, Mass.

CUTICURA, the great skin cure, and CUTICURA SOAP prepared from it, externally, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new blood purifier, internally, are a positive cure for every form of skin and blood disease, from pimples to scrofula.

Sold everywhere. Price: CUTICURA, 75c; SOAP, 35c; RESOLVENT, $1.50. Prepared by the FORTY-SEVEN AND CHEMICAL CO., Boston, Mass.

GENERAL NEWS.

Reeve G. Bland fell in the Methodist church, in Kingston, dislocating his leg and breaking several ribs. He had just recovered from amputation of his leg in New York.

There are divers rumors of a sudden and sensational ending of the proceedings of the Parnell Commission. It is asserted that Sir Chas. Russell will advise the Parnellites not to offer any testimony, but to rest their case when Pigott and the chirographic experts have finished, and appeal to the sense of the court for a verdict.

During the last week of his stay in the White House, President Cleveland will be a busy man. His work will be chiefly in examining bills sent from Congress. Yesterday 112 such bills were on hand for examination, and the rush of the final days of Congress has not fairly begun.

Very cold weather was reported on the 24th of last month from various points in the New England States. At Marlow, N.H., the mercury registered 36 below zero and at Montpelier, Vermont, 26 below. Chatham bay was frozen over.

The Rev. Dr. Wild, of Toronto, in a sermon lately urged the Quebec Protestants to get out an injunction against the Jesuit Estates Bill. The reverend gentleman said the law of Canada had no power to incorporate the Jesuits, and certainly the Province of Quebec could not assume that power. He doubted whether, if a man were to shoot a Jesuit in the street, the British law could punish him. It is treason against the British constitution for a Jesuit to exist in the Dominion. He foretold that the next move would be to ask the Dominion parliament to pay the $400,000.

A mass meeting of Orangemen is to be held in Toronto on the 5th March for the purpose of urging the Government to veto the Jesuit Estates Bill.

JAMES Riddell, of Lintrathen, while feeding his sheep, and was driving them into a shed with a fork handle, when one ran between his legs and he fell forward the times of the fork penetrating his right lung about five inches. He raised himself from the ground and pulled the fork out, when he bled profusely from the mouth, nose and wound. He then walked to the house and was attended by Dr. Cunningham, who has hopes of his recovery although he is very low.

J. R. Russell, of Brantford, committed suicide by shooting himself. He was left about $25,000 a year ago, which he invested in the grocery business about a year ago; that is supposed to have ruined him.

The announcement that Prince Henry of Battenburg would probably marry Mlle Leisinger, the prima donna, has led to the discovery that the couple are already married. The lady is 24 years of age and is also a catholic.

A green hand was taken on one of the tracklaying gangs on the Portage la Prairie extension. On going to work he clothed his feet in silk stockings and fine kid boots, with the result that after a few hours' experience with our bracing atmosphere he retired with both feet frozen. He was taken to Winnipeg hospital, and will be minus a few toes for the balance of his life.

The Rev. J. Dyke, pastor of Wesley church, Winnipeg, in a sermon to the Orangemen of that city, characterized the Jesuit Estates Bill as an attack on the British constitution and on Protestantism. He could not see how the incorporation of this body was legal. It had been expelled from every country in the world. The British law made it treason for a Jesuit to be on British soil. The preacher could not see how a Protestant Government could fail to disallow the bill, and yet will not allow the incorporation of a legal order like the Orangemen. He said the Orangemen thereby every Jesuit plagues himself to the utmost of his power to uphold the Pope's pretensions of authority or to disprove heretical kings, princes, states and governments, all being illegal without the Pope's sacred confirmation, and that they may be safely destroyed. The speaker also read several principles and rules of conduct of the Jesuit order, one of which was: "The rebellion of an ecclesiastic against a king is not a crime of high treason because he is not a subject of a king. He who puts to death a prince who is declared a public criminal does not only a lawful but laudable action."

COMMUNICATIONS.

It must be distinctly understood that we do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by correspondents. Correspondents must give their names in full, not necessarily for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

THE TOWN ACCOUNTS.

To the Editor of the Times.

SIR,—Those who, for the time being, control the affairs of any public body or corporation are liable to receive praise, censure or advice, in such a degree as their actions call for, or appear to call for, at the hands of those whose interests they have been chosen to serve. Let me examine and pass an opinion as to which our town council is entitled. At the time of their taking office a good deal was promised in placing the affairs of the town on a more business like basis. Two months have elapsed which should be sufficient time for them to make some progress. The mayor in his executive capacity can do a great deal in having the by-laws and instructions of the council carried out. We all remember how, when sitting as a councillor in the council of 1898, he objected strongly to the manner in which the accounts of the town had been kept ever since it had been incorporated, as being in no way satisfactory to the ratepayers, and not contributing to the credit of the business men who in the past were largely represented in the council. Others in the council shared these views, and the cost admitted the need of a change. Our present mayor was one of the committee formed to examine the accounts and draft a scheme for keeping a satisfactory system of municipal books of account. Probably the fact that there was existing a mass of unsettled matters during the autumn, prevented this from being pushed through before the end of the year, but it should have been attended to then. We are now told that a report was agreed upon and placed in the present mayor's hands to be forwarded so as to commence the year with an entirely different system from that hitherto kept. Why was it that this was not brought forward to be pronounced upon by the present council? If of value, there can be no excuse for keeping it back. I do not know if the auditors reported that the accounts were "well and systematically kept," or if they recommended a change. I can hardly believe the first, if the auditors were qualified for their work. If the latter is the case, no doubt the ratepayers would like to know about it, and see the change immediately brought about, for the manner in which the accounts have been kept in the past, the past councils have been to blame, not the officials who only carried out the instructions given them. In all matters that have engaged the attention of the council the members have shown to little advantage in the eyes of the ratepayers. They have been doing and undoing, without any other apparent object than the pleasure of the thing. One wonders whether they have been incorrectly reported, in that they have taken up the question of whether they shall pay a handmaster a salary, and that equal to the combined salaries of two or three of the officials of the town, in return for—Taking all together I think the town council are justly entitled to just a little censure and a great deal of advice, carefully administered.

A RATEPAYER.

DUCK LAKE.

Mr. H. Mitchell will be home on Sunday the 17th.

The snow has all gone and waggons are in general use.

The Metis are preparing for lent consequently plenty of weddings and dances.

Mr. McIntosh, merchant, of Fish Creek, was in town this week renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. Batoche purposes leaving for Montreal shortly to purchase goods. He was delighted with his last visit.

An English school is badly needed here and it is to be hoped our people will get a move on and get one established at once.

Two of our young men report seeing geese on Monday night. Joe and William John had a large snipe party express that day.

The members of Carlton are publishing the Government for telegraph communication. This is an important settlement and should have been.

Mrs. McRobb, nee Jackson, John Miller, of Prince Albert, spent most of last week here with relations. Mrs. McRobb is a terrible Reformer.

A meeting of the settlers will be held here on Wednesday, April the 17th, at 1 o'clock p.m. to form an agricultural society. It is to be hoped there will be a large attendance.

Mr. G. Carter, of Carlton, last spring bought seven turkeys from which he raised one hundred and nineteen. He sold seventy-five at $2.50 each. Who says raising turkeys does not pay?

R. McIvor, of Willoughby, brought in this week the largest trout ever seen here. It weighed thirty-eight pounds. He made a present of it to an Irishman, no doubt thinking he was a Scotchman. Of course he was not made any the wiser.

The event of the season took place at Batoche on Monday last in the marriage of Mr. P. L. Lafond, of Prince Albert, to Miss Eloise Marion, of Batoche. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Pere Moulin. The groom was ably assisted by Mr. A. Duguay and the bride by Miss De la Gorgondiere. The bride wore a black satin dress richly trimmed with gros grain silk and the bridesmaid was dressed in garnet satin trimmed with real lace and plush. After the wedding breakfast, at 12 o'clock, dancing was commenced and continued until the following morning. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents.

CERROND BROS. BOOK STORE.

HORSE SHOE STORE.

This is spring, sweet, balmy spring:
The winter has been mild,
Some stock that T.O. bought last fall
Upon his shelves is piled.
Always it really is no use,
This winter stock must go,
So Taylor cut the prices down
And give the folks a show.

Let prices advertise our sale
Throughout the country side,
And when the people come to buy,
Hobart cost let them slide.

We must have room, our mammoth stock
It shortly will arrive,
So, Gallagher, just let her go,
In every line a drive.

Remember, the balance of our winter stock must be sold out to make room. We mean what we say when we say cost. Any sensible person knows that it is better to sell at cost and have the use of the money for six months, what we can replace goods at the same figures. We do not advertise to humbug anyone.

You get goods at dead cost. We get the use of the money.
This is business, not humbug. Give us a call and convince yourself that we advertise facts.

Other people may sell you goods at cost, but we can sell you goods cheaper, because we buy for cash in the east and buy in larger quantities, consequently can sell cheaper.

Come where you can get the largest variety of goods to choose from, at the lowest figures.
